

Sales Playbook

1. Scenario Overview and Context

You are meeting with the Director of Nursing (DoN) at a Skilled Nursing Facility (SNF) which currently uses another hospice provider. The primary objective is to build trust, demonstrate value, and secure a follow-up meeting. Emphasis should be on understanding their current processes and challenges related to hospice care, without directly asking for referrals at this stage.

2. Step-by-Step Actionable Strategies

Preparation

- Research: Gather background information about the SNF, the DoN's professional history, and current hospice provider.
- Materials: Prepare supportive materials that can be shared after the meeting, such as success stories, value propositions, and a brief overview of your services.

Meeting Initiation

- Greeting: Begin with a warm greeting and a succinct self-introduction.
- Establish Rapport: Find common ground or mutual interests with the DoN to build an initial connection.

Discovery Phase

- Understand Current Processes:
 - "Can you share how the current hospice partnership is structured?"
 - "What are your expectations for a hospice provider in terms of care delivery and communication?"
- Identify Challenges:
 - "What are some challenges your team faces with patient discharges?"
 - "How does your current provider assist with these discharge challenges?"

Value Demonstration

- Share Insights: Provide insights into common industry challenges and innovative solutions.
- "Many facilities are facing increased pressure on discharge timelines. We've helped similar facilities streamline these processes effectively."

Secure Follow-Up

- Express Genuine Interest: Reassure them of your intent to understand their needs and collaborate effectively.
- Suggest Next Steps:

•

"I'd love to dive deeper into how we could support your objectives. Could we schedule another time to explore this further?"

Conclude with Clarity

- Summarize: Briefly go over what was discussed and any agreed next steps.
- Leave Materials: Provide materials that reinforce the discussion and your value proposition.

3. Specific Talking Points and Scripts

- "Thank you for taking the time to meet with me today. I'm really excited to learn about your facility and how your team operates."
- "I understand that choosing a hospice partner is a critical aspect of providing compassionate care. Your insights into what makes a successful partnership are incredibly valuable."
- "I'm not here to sell you anything today. My goal is to understand your needs and showcase how we can complement your efforts through disciplined and empathetic service."

4. Key Takeaways and Success Metrics

Key Takeaways

- Build trust through empathetic listening and genuine interest.
- Gather insightful information about their current challenges and expectations.
- Position yourself as a discipline-driven, strategic partner.

Success Metrics

- Initial Trust: The DoN acknowledges feeling heard and valued.
- Information Gathering: Gain specific insights into their current pain points and hospice interaction.
- Follow-Up Meeting: Secure a follow-up appointment or express willingness to continue the conversation.
- Relationship Building: Establish rapport that can lead to a long-term partnership.

This playbook aligns with the Spartan Method by prioritizing discipline in preparation, empathy in understanding client needs, and strategic planning for securing future opportunities.

Disclaimer & Legal Notice

This document was generated using artificial intelligence (OpenAI GPT-4o) through the Spartan Coaching platform and is provided for educational and training purposes only. It does not constitute professional, legal, clinical, regulatory, or compliance advice. Content should be reviewed, verified, and adapted to your specific organizational policies, state regulations, and individual patient circumstances before use.

Intellectual Property: All AI-generated content produced through Spartan Coaching's platform is the exclusive property of Spartan Coaching. Unauthorized reproduction, redistribution, or commercial use is strictly prohibited.

© 2026 Spartan Coaching. All rights reserved. | spartanhospicecoaching.com