Email, phone scripts, and meeting agendas

EMAIL 1: POST-CALL SUMMARY (Within 2 Hours)

Subject: Great chatting with you—a few resources

Hi [Name], Thanks for taking time today. I really appreciated learning about [their detail].

Here's what I promised:

- [Resource 1]
- [Resource 2]

One thing stuck with me: You mentioned [pain point]. I think we can help.

EMAIL 2: NURTURE (No Response After 1 Week)

Looking forward to connecting!

[Your Name]

Subject: One resource you might find helpful

Hi [Name], Just following up from our conversation. I put together something specific to [facility type] that addresses [their pain point].

Are you still open to a 15-minute conversation about how we could help?

Let me know!

[Your Name]

PHONE SCRIPT: FOLLOW-UP

"Hi [Name], it's [Your Name] from Spartan. Just wanted to follow up from our conversation. Do you have 2 minutes?"

If YES:

"Great. You mentioned [pain point]. I want to show you how [solution] could help. Does that still feel relevant?"

If NO:

"Got it. When would be a better time? I promise to keep this brief."
